DID YOU KNOW THAT...

...the fastest way to improve your hospital's overall performance is by improving individual departments, one department at a time?

...the competency of your frontline managers is a crucial predictor of employee AND patient satisfaction?

...having a 'D' level manager trying to run a department with a high-degree of difficulty (DoD) is like trying to put a square peg in a round hole and will only cause more frustration and disengagement?

"EYE CHART"™ REPORT FROM YOUR DATA

Uncover hidden problems and compare your business practices to national standards, using data from your present employee-satisfaction survey

Does your existing employee-satisfaction survey tell you who among your front-line managers are performing exceptionally and who are ineffective? Does it identify the real drivers of employee retention, patient satisfaction, and financial performance? Does it establish baseline performance measures for comparative analysis? If you answered 'No' to any of these questions, you definitely don't have all the information you need to optimize your workforce and tangibly improve productivity.

At Healthcare Performance Solutions and Success Profiles we are experts in performance measurement and much more. The "Eye Chart" report we will generate, using assessment data from your existing employee survey, will detect and document employeerelated issues that really count. At a glance, our "Eye Chart" reporting system will allow you to recognize both the highest and lowest performing areas and individuals within your organization and compare them to national standards. Furthermore, it will provide you with active coaching plans that meet the unique needs of each individual and help you raise productivity one department at a time.
